

Demonstration

against racism and police violence

This is an appeal to everybody and all groups of people to take action against racism. This is an appeal for collaboration in emphasizing the anger of the present circumstances. This is an appeal for a joint demonstration against the continuous deterioration of living conditions due to restrictive laws for foreigners, and against the repeatedly racist assaults on the part of the police.

It is time to join forces; it's time for us to openly show our resentment and to concentrate on our commonalities rather than on our contradictions.

Are you angry, too? Then come and join us!
